Terms of Business

We require a deposit of £2000.00 or more if the funeral costs are more than the cost of our Comprehensive Funeral costs.

The arrangements made between you (the client) and us (funeral director) form a binding contract and the person signing this confirmation is deemed fully responsible for the funeral account.

The estimate we give you is an indication of the charges likely to be incurred based on the information and details we know at the time of arrangement. They are liable to change due lo additional services being requested or third parties changing their rates. A full and final invoice will be sent after the funeral has taken place and we require payment within 14 days of the date of the final invoice letter.

The ultimate owners of this business are Kim and Simon Jefferies; we have no business or financial interest in price comparison websites that compare funeral director services and their respective prices.
